January 2022 Phytogen – Society awards are open !

21 January 2022

Welcome all to 2022.

Last year as a society there were plenty of activities. So much so, I hope you have all managed to have a rest in preparation for 2022.

This year will have highlights of face to face scientific meetings.

There will be ComBio2022 in Melbourne in September and IPMB2022 in Cairns in October.

It will be a wonderful opportunity for students and colleagues to catchup.

We wish all the best to students in their studies this year, to teachers preparing their learning activities for students and to researchers for their experiments this year.

Society awards are Open:

The closing date for the 2022 Peter Goldacre award is March 28th 2022 Click: Details

The closing date for the 2022 Jan Anderson 2022 award will be March 28th 2022 Click: Details

Applications for the 2022 RN Robertson Fellowship will close 25 March 2022. To be eligible for this fellowship round the planned work must take place in 2022 Click: Details

Applications for the 2022 ASPS Education and Outreach Award are now open. The closing date for the 2022 award is April 16th 2022. Click: Details
